

Abolition of Feudal Tenure in Scotland

by Kenneth G C Reid, MA LLB WS FRSE, Scottish Law Commissioner and Professor of Property Law in the University of Edinburgh.

Abolition of the feudal system is the most important single change to have occurred in land law in Scotland.

This book is published to coincide with the commencement, in the autumn of 2003, of part 4 of the Abolition of Feudal Tenure etc (Scotland) Act 2000. The remainder of the Act comes into force on 28 November 2004.

In this book Professor Reid, the leading expert in the field, provides an authoritative guide to this complex legislation. Over 14 chapters he gives a clear and fully referenced account of the new law and its implications for conveyancing practice. Styles are provided where appropriate.
